CITY THEATRE CELEBRATES THE HOLIDAYS WITH OY VEY IN A MANGER

City Events Series Continues with Parody-Filled Holiday Performance

December 8 - December 11, 2011

PITTSBURGH, PA (November 15, 2011)—City Theatre continues its City Events series with Oy Vey in a Manger, featuring The Kinsey Sicks, the award-winning “dragapella beautyshop quartet.” With a performance track record that includes an Off-Broadway show, an extended run in Vegas, two feature films, and seven albums, The Kinsey Sicks have played to sold-out houses throughout the US, Canada, Mexico, Europe and Australia. The Washington Post calls them “uproarious...brilliant...hilarious!” The Washington Blade raves, “These girls can belt, harmonize, and hold a tune.” Oy Vey in a Manger runs December 8 - December 11, 2011 on City Theatre’s Main Stage.

Brace yourself for a holiday show like no other. The Kinsey Sicks, "America's favorite dragapella beautyshop quartet," brings its critically-acclaimed showcase of gut-busting parodies and raucous schtick to the South Side. With songs like "Tis the Season to Drink Stoli," "Harried Little Christmas," and "God Bless Ye Femmy Lesbians," they blend glorious four-part harmonies with campy and outrageous humor. This show is suitable for audiences 16 and older.
